TANG SHAO YI

Chinese Commissioner To Arrive Soon Going To Washington

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY CHUNG MEN YEW

Has Important Work To Do in Dealing With Diplomatic Relations of China and the United States

Peking, China, Sept. 24.—Tang Shao Yi left here today for Washington with several cartloads of precious gifts, mostly porcelain and jade, for President Roosevelt, his daughter, Mrs. Longworth, and sundry United States officials, from the Dowager Empress, and a letter from the Emperor thanking the American people for remitting part of the Boxer indemnity. He was escorted to the railway station by Chinese troops and the American legation guard.
The Dowager Empress received Tang Shao Yi in farewell audience on Monday. Previous to this he was decorated with the Order of the Double Dragon, first class—a very high honor. He has been given plenary powers with the rank of Ambassador, and this, together with the other honors conferred, indicates the importance attached to his mission.
He has a numerous suite, including Prince Tsai, second son of Prince Ching; Chung Men Yew and Yung Kwai, who were at one time in the diplomatic service at Washington; eighteen secretaries and fifteen Chinese students who are to enter American colleges.

The presence of Chung Men Yew in this mission has given rise to a report that he is to supersede Wu Ting Fang as Minister at Washington. After leaving America Tang Shao Yi and his company will make a leisurely tour of the world.
This mission goes abroad to study foreign governments and modern conditions with a view to adopting what is deemed best for the constitutional government promised to China, and introducing methods and machinery to enable the Celestial Kingdom to develop her resources and to take the position among nations to which her greatness and her possibilities entitle her.

The diplomatic representatives here of America, Great Britain, Japan, France and Germany, together with a number of British and French bankers, and a score of officials of the Foreign Board, of which Tang Shao Yi is vice-president, were at the railroad station to bid him farewell.
The mission will spend a fortnight in Shanghai and three weeks in Japan, where Tang Shao Yi will confer with the Tokyo authorities on Sino-Japanese questions. He will leave Yokohama November 4 on the Mongolia for San Francisco.

Foreigners in Peking surmise that he is about to try to remove the obstacles to China's freedom in Manchuria, by securing American sympathy and support through American investment.
The presents for American officials include ten ancient porcelain relics of the Manchou conquest, taken from the palace of the present ruling family at Mukden, and other valuable porcelains and jades obtained in the Peking markets. The gifts for Mrs. Longworth include several valuable jades.

The United States Constitution provides, Article I, Section 9, Clause 8: "No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States. And no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of Congress, accept any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatsoever from any King, Prince or foreign State."

"He's a Fine Fellow," Says Wu Ting Fang of Chung Men Yew.
Washington, Sept. 24.—Wu Ting Fang said tonight of Chung Men Yew, who is coming to Washington with a special mission from China and who, rumor says, is to succeed Mr. Wu as Minister:
"He's a fine fellow, but I have not heard anything of the coming reported change from my Government. Perhaps it may be true. The Government may have something else for me to do."

Dr. Wu has an intimate acquaintance with Chung Men Yew, who has been interpreter and secretary of legation at Washington. He is a man of perhaps fifty years of age.

The State Department knows nothing about the reported intention to replace Minister Wu Ting Fang with Chung Men Yew. Assistant Secretary Ade says the mission's visit to this country has no bearing on the tenure of Minister Wu. Chung Men Yew has been appointed opium commissioner and Tang Shao Yi educational commissioner to investigate those two conditions in the United States.

Chung Men Yew is widely known in the United States, where he spent much of his life, first as a student and later in the diplomatic service at Washington. He was educated at Harvard University, where he took an active part in university affairs, being a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Later he became interpreter at the Chinese Embassy at Washington, his perfect command of English making him exceptionally valuable in that capacity.

Mr. Chung is a widower with one son who was educated in the United States.
